Naturopathic Doctors in Norfolk - Richard Bartlett, a Chiropractor and Naturopath developed a transformative healing system referred to as Matrix Energetics in the year 1997 after he experienced a life-changing event. Mr. Bartlett discovered that he could bring back the mental, emotional, physical and spiritual balance in his patients simply by touching them gently with focused intention. As an additional extra, he can correct misalignments which had troubled a few of his clients for numerous years. Richard discovered that he can teach anyone this particular technique which combines subtle energy with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns in the resonating matrix could become transformed from emotional or physical injury. These interruptions can cause ingrained perceptions or habits that can block an individual from reaching a state of prosperity, health, happiness and other positive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, transfer these ingrained patterns and transform core beliefs to be able to allow the patient to acquire their goals in order to create the quality of life and kind of life desired.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics believe that preconceived notions of limitations are the cause of a patient's problems and that these restrictions could be eliminated at once through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This particular healing system is believed to get rid of the sources of both temporary and chronic concerns like for example muscle spasms, scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma and headaches among others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing method although several practitioners use it to be able to improve several healing techniques. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner could alter the belief system of the customer and could change his or her beliefs regarding the healing process, the structure of reality and the nature of disease. Normally, recipients could feel a wave pass throughout their bodies since their previous view of actuality is changed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Time and space are not a part of reality at the quantum level. A person's consciousness can have an effect on how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Since the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear all over concurrently and also move forward and backward in time. An individual's consciousness could have an effect on these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. These views and this information have been integrated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the shifts that take place on the cellular level in the individual.
